

Tomorrow at the club, we will be having a cyanotype evening. Come along to produce your own cyanotype. For those that haven't done it before full instruction and demonstration will be given also remember it is handing in for the forthcoming print competition. Terry will be bringing his mount cutter and I will be bringing some mount board for anyone that still needs to mount their work.